

Central Coast Council Scholarship

Form Preview

Eligibility

* indicates a required field

Background

The Central Coast Council is committed to supporting and celebrating the achievements, contributions, and personal growth of Central Coast students in areas such as academic excellence, community service, leadership, and resilience, and encouraging them to continue to strive for success and positively impact their communities.

The scholarship is exclusively intended to cover expenses such as living away from home, book fees, levies, or other relevant costs associated with pursuing further studies.

To support this, the Council offers two (2) annual scholarships of $1,500 for eligible residents.

Program

This field is read only.
